BLM Lakeview District Fire Prevention Order Rescinded

The Bureau of Land Management (BLM), Lakeview District, will remove fire restrictions for the public on all lands within the BLM Lakeview District, except the Klamath River Canyon, October 17, 2024, at 12:01 a.m. The orders being rescinded went into effect earlier this summer to help prevent human-caused wildfires.

The orders state explicitly Pursuant to 43 Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) §9212.2 (a), the prohibitions listed in the Fire Prevention Orders, that were effective on June 27, 2024, and signed by James Forbes, District Manager, are hereby rescinded. This removes all fire restrictions on lands administered by the BLM Lakeview District, except for the Klamath River Canyon order that was signed on June 4, 2024, and went into effect on June 7, 2024.

The official order is available online at: <https://www.blm.gov/orwafire>
